4. Winning Horses Contact Classes

Super Deans are invited once a year for short-term training workshops at Judea campuses located across Africa. These new upcoming leaders are nominated by local Judea Regional Managers in collaboration with Judea head office staff. These ministers are seen as new influential leaders and are familiarised with the Judea world during the contact class sessions. Super Deans pay their own way to and from the conference but Judea covers the costs of the week's training programme, teaching material, accommodation and meals.
